JENNIFER: MAKING THE MOST OF OPPORTUNITIES

At various times in your life, Jennifer, you've probably had the feeling that the opportunities are available for exactly what you want to do. At other times, you've undoubtedly experienced the feeling that hardly anything is going right and that you can't find a satisfactory outlet for your capabilities.

By using the science of numerology, though, you can recognize the specific influences and opportunities in your life at any given time. You can determine—in advance—the times of greatest opportunity and you can also foresee difficulties and the areas in which they're likely to happen. Numerology doesn't give you the ability to foretell the future. It does, however, give you the ability to see and analyze many of the coming influences and opportunities before they occur. This allows you to maximize the positive potential as well as to prepare beforehand for problems that may be developing.

This profile describes the influences and opportunities you can expect in your life during the time span shown. The profile also includes suggestions for resolving any difficulties as well as for making the best use of the coming opportunities.

JANUARY THROUGH DECEMBER 2013

JENNIFER: A TIME TO WAIT WHILE THE VENTURES BEGUN LAST YEAR DEVELOP SLOWLY. A TIME TO LEARN PATIENCE.

Your 2 Personal Year

Jennifer, the year 2013 is likely to be a time of quiet waiting. Your long-term ventures started last year are likely to slow down considerably. If you're a patient person, exercise as much patience as you can. Try to stay on an even keel. If you're not particularly patient, use this year to make progress on developing this important characteristic. It'll stand you in good stead this year—and in years to come.

Be ready to put up with delays and just let things develop. Allow as much time as it takes for your plans to mature fully. Don't make any drastic changes or sharp adjustments in the direction you're following. Take care of the details whenever that's necessary. Don't make much effort to move your ventures along, as nothing of much importance is likely to come from it. Action usually isn't necessary at this time anyway. It isn't desirable, either, because sometimes it may force conditions into less desirable channels.

Don't call attention to yourself or your projects. Delays, as frustrating as they may be, actually may improve the ultimate timing needed for reaching the goals of your project. In many cases—though not all—matters tend to speed up during the closing months of the year. By the end of December 2013, you're likely to be just about where you want to be. Use any extra time you have for studying and gathering information related to your ventures so that you're prepared for forward movement when the time is ripe.

This is a good year to form new friendships or renew old ones. Explore the possibilities of partnerships with acquaintances or friends you meet this year. This is a good time to work with others if they have ventures requiring some help. It's also a good year for new romance or marriage. Relate to others tactfully, diplomatically and especially in a spirit of harmony and cooperation. Be receptive to others' ideas and willing to explore others' viewpoints. Remember too that any assistance you can give at this time is likely to be repaid later when you're in need of some aid from others. You may also find it important or satisfying to work as part of a group in 2013 to fulfill mutual needs.

Jennifer, expect a lot of heightened emotions and considerable sensitivity around you. You—or those close to you—may be feeling a bit more touchy than usual. Don't be surprised when you experience periods of reduced energy. Try not to take everything personally and avoid making mountains out of molehills. You may be surprised at the frequency with which you feel blue—and sometimes even teary. Frequently, you may feel emotionally vulnerable. Avoid being argumentative or petty, if at all possible. Get in touch with your feelings and share them as well as you can.

You may also find many occasions in 2013—often with family or close friends—to end quarrels, sometimes of long standing, and to bring about a new and very special balance and harmony. Be extremely courteous and adaptable. This can be a year to give a great deal of affection, friendship and love and to receive a great deal in return.

If you don't feel as sensitive to others' needs as you want to, this could be a fine year to develop your sensitivity. If, on the other hand, you're an extremely sensitive person already, this year may present just the opportunity you're looking for to refine your acute sensibilities even further.

Special Focus For This Year

Jennifer, 2013 is a time to pay special attention to family, friends and loved ones. Work on making your family closer, more loving and more harmonious. Help with projects connected to your home and family. You may want to complete those long-standing chores you've promised to do around the house. Or you may want to resolve quarrels that have grown up between you and some of the family members. Express your caring nature and refine your strong sensitivity. Give of your friendliness and affection and help with others' needs. Your cooperation and consideration will be most appreciated. Your sympathy and understanding may be much needed when emotions are strained. In particular, take time with old friends. Enjoy the new friends—and possible future partners—you find in some of your current activities. Romance can grow if you're willing to be extremely open with your feelings.

Do what's necessary to keep advances moving on the important projects you started in 2012. Don't try and force business matters to move ahead. Things will move at their own relatively slow pace in 2013 no matter how much you try and influence them. Take care of the detours or work stoppages that are likely to take place from time to time.

Your 9 Essence

January 1 to August 14

While the above described Personal Year indicates the best approach for you to take for growth and development during 2013, the Essence points out the likely events to take place during the period that it is active. Knowing the probable events that will happen and the preferred approach to those events will help you to get the most out of your experiences.

This is a time during which you'll experience much drama, emotions and completions. Expect events to occur where there's much feeling involved. A tolerant and compassionate approach on your part can help make things go much easier. Close personal relationships or meaningful experiences may also come to an abrupt end. Sometimes these are expected, but very often these come as a surprise to you. Though there can be much emotional confusion over these endings, the ending usually gives you more freedom than is apparent at the time. You may also find yourself involved with romance, possibly even a love affair. Strong emotions and a sense of confusion, though, can make this a challenging time. This is a good time to learn that true love doesn't have to restrict another person, but instead supports their right to be free. You may also find yourself giving selfless service to others or getting involved in a creative endeavor.

Your 19/1 Essence

August 15 through December 31

During this period be ready to encounter events and opportunities that have a strong impact on your life that lead to your becoming more independent. Before you can obtain the independence you've been looking for, though, you must first change the limiting situations that are currently holding you back. Your achievement of independence will take much effort on your part as you work to overcome the obstacles and problems in your way. As you make the effort, you'll find a new understanding and awareness that leads you towards the independence you seek. This can sometimes be a difficult period, full of important lessons that can help you to grow and develop. Only after working to become freer, can you obtain the advancement you desire.

Because your Essence for this period points in a very different direction than the Personal Year, you may find that things do not go as easily or as smoothly as you'd like. Jennifer, your need to lead and manage at this time conflicts with your desire to work closely with others in a helping way. You may spend a good part of the time struggling to find a comfortable balance. It's possible, too, that you may try to avoid one of these energies altogether. You'll find, though, that it resurfaces no matter what you do. Sometimes a balance can be reached by alternately using one energy, then the other. If at all possible, try to find an approach to the events and opportunities during this period that allows both energies to work together. This isn't always easy, but it can provide the best use of the potentials available.

Monthly Highlights For 2013

The Personal Year is an important yearly influence. This influence, though, is expressed with a somewhat different emphasis each month. Be sure to take the monthly emphasis into account, too, when considering the best approach to take to each month's events. Monthly highlights for 2013 are given next, followed by detailed descriptions for each month.

Some interesting special people may come to your attention in January, possibly in connection with some of your creative activities. In April, most of your attention probably will center on your family, spouse or romantic interest. Be prepared for some strong emotions as well as some beautiful, loving times. In July, there may be partings if controversial matters aren't settled to everyone's satisfaction. In August, attend to business matters. Enjoy closeness and sensitivity with those dear to you in September and then make the most of your social life in October. Take care of business activities in November.

AUGUST 2013

Your 1 Personal Month

Jennifer, there's a new feeling in the air as August begins. You can sense a new vitality in ongoing activities that have previously stopped and started all year. You can see opportunities now, particularly around August 4th, for dynamic starts in areas where you haven't been able to make much headway since January. There are some completely new possibilities developing as well, on August 9th or 22nd, possibly the kind of speculative ventures you've been looking for. There may still be some delays throughout the next few months in some of your projects, but they're likely to be of short duration. You'll probably see them coming, too, so they'll be a lot easier to deal with. Continue to use the tact and diplomacy you've been using all year. Maintain a sensitive approach and a good emotional balance. Help your various ventures move forward, but ease them into position rather than asserting yourself vigorously. Some new friends with considerable business know how may prove helpful, especially around August 27th.

SEPTEMBER 2013

Your 1 1/2 Personal Month

Enjoy a month of calm and quiet. Your various ventures will move ahead, particularly around September 8th, and may need monitoring, but the real emphasis at this time is likely to be on your family and friends. Although the vitality you felt last year may still be there, a considerable mellowness and harmony are likely to pervade the atmosphere. You may achieve a lot of closeness this month with those people who are special to you. Some new friends may make an appearance on or about September 18th. Love and romance may blossom. Some beautiful, sensitive relationships—with your spouse or lover, among others—are likely to begin or continue. A significant feeling of coming together with your family members may develop, bringing to a satisfying conclusion a desire you've harbored, and worked toward, during the year. A new spiritual awareness, sometime around September 23rd, may add an important note and further your development in this area.

OCTOBER 2013

Your 3 Personal Month

Expect a month with a sense of fun and activity. Be ready to lighten the load by expressing yourself through whatever imagination and creative talent you possess. Some new business or career opportunities may come to your attention around October 11th. It'll be a few more months, though, before you'll want to get involved with them. Keep your ongoing projects moving forward but take some time off, if necessary, to enjoy yourself. Take care of any delays that accompany your work and recognize that these temporary stoppages have a milder impact than delays earlier in the year. Take part in the various social activities that come your way. You may even want to give a party of your own. Enjoy your longtime friends and take the opportunity to meet some new friends, particularly at get-togethers around October 18th or 20th. Include your family, and particularly your children, in appropriate activities. Don't scatter yourself too thin, though, and waste your time.

NOVEMBER 2013

Your 4 Personal Month

Jennifer, take care of the work that has to be done in November. You may have to organize, systematize or do some managing in regard to some of the ongoing ventures or new projects you're checking out. There may be some legal matters, like agreements or contracts, to study or negotiate on November 4th. You may be involved in buying or selling some property, possibly even a home of your own, about November 18th. Approach your assignments this month in a practical, down-to-earth manner. Take care to make logical and rational decisions, even if you choose to temper them with your sensitivity and compassion. Keep your eye on your budget, particularly around November 22nd. Take a break periodically to relieve the pressures you may feel this month. Try not to get involved in work that's boring or doesn't seem to be leading anywhere. Take care of all your obligations, though. Don't neglect any details or they may come back to bother you at a less opportune time.

DECEMBER 2013

Your 5 Personal Month

Close the year with a month of excitement and adventure. Unexpected events and unusual people can make this one of the most eventful times of the year. There'll be new and interesting opportunities coming your way, particularly on December 7th and 9th. Check into the potential. You may want to exploit these opportunities with much more vigor than you've exercised earlier this year. Your current opportunities have a good chance of developing further than some of your earlier ones. The delays you've had to deal with during the rest of the year aren't likely to bother you any more. Many of your ongoing activities seem to be revitalized on or around December 14th or 18th. They're beginning to point toward next year and a growing probability of change and development. Don't neglect your work but be sure to get together with friends and family throughout this month. Enjoy parties and the many chances you have to meet new people.

Jennifer, as the year 2013 closes, some of the projects previously delayed by unforeseen events are likely to start moving again. Give your attention to these matters but don't neglect the special people in your life.

JANUARY THROUGH DECEMBER 2014

JENNIFER: A TIME TO RELAX AND ENJOY LIFE, TO EXPRESS YOUR CREATIVITY AND EXHILARATING ENTHUSIASM.

Your 3 Personal Year

Jennifer, the year 2014 may be a special, lighter year for you. It can be time to experience happiness and pleasure at its best and to express the exhilarating enthusiasm of the joy of living. It's a time, too, to expand and develop opportunities often involving your creative and imaginative talents. Coming, as it does, after the often slow-moving and frequently emotional 2013, this year sometimes seems to bring the best of exciting and fun-filled times.

If you're lucky enough not to be overburdened with responsibility in 2014, there'll be ample time to enjoy yourself and appreciate the cheerful and optimistic environment you find yourself in. Cultivate the society of some of your old friends and enjoy the many new friends you can make as well. Expect a very active social life. You'll probably have lots of invitations and a desire to organize social gatherings of your own. There may be some exciting romantic interludes. Enjoy travel during this year and enjoy the pleasures of art and beauty along the way. Have fun.

In particular, make time to enjoy your children this year, no matter what their age. If you especially like young children, you also may want to spend time with youngsters other than your own. You may want to plan expeditions to interesting museums, shows or concerts. Travel to some unusual places could prove a high point for all of you.

Keep your superficial and frivolous activities to a reasonable minimum. Enjoy the happiness that comes your way but recognize that self-indulgence or extravagance may get in the way of some of the deeper pleasures available to you. Don't lose sight of money matters with all the activity that's going on.

Some of your ventures from the last two years may begin to flower or reach constructive conclusions in 2014. Develop both the new opportunities that come your way and your older ventures—as far as they can go. Jennifer, place considerable emphasis on your creative talents. Make use of the imaginative and inspirational aspects of your character. Look for possibilities for advancement, recognition and perhaps much-improved finances. Emphasize creative projects involving words—writing, lecturing, singing or acting, among others. Spend time improving your appearance. You may enjoy shopping for new or special outfits or take pleasure in improving your physical fitness and the appearance of your hair, skin and nails. This is also a good year to move to a new residence.

Take care not to scatter your energies recklessly. Try to complete one project before starting another. Although there's much in the way of exciting social life, make sure not to neglect your various ongoing ventures—and your new projects, too—so that you can end the year with feelings of satisfaction and accomplishment.

2014 can be an exceptionally joyous year. Make the most of it. Try not to waste your energy or resources. Keep your worrying to a minimum. Stay away from gossips. Avoid blaming others and enjoy other people's good fortune rather than being jealous.

Handle your emotions carefully and constructively. Stress optimism, cheerfulness and enthusiasm in all your activities. Make the most of others' delight and spread your own contagious joy and vitality at every turn.

Special Focus For This Year

Through 2014, enjoy new and old friends. This is a year for you to savor, one which, to a large extent, can be full of pleasurable experiences and expressions of the joy of living. Take care of the obligations that come your way but be careful not to get involved in other people's responsibilities at this time. Approach them with a sense of fun and delight whenever possible. Spend time at their parties and throw a few of your own as well. If you move, have a house-warming celebration. Make time to cultivate the society of some of your special long-time friends. Enjoy the new friends you're likely to meet at the many get-togethers you attend. If you're single, look for some vibrant romantic interludes. If you're married, enjoy a romantic trip or two with your spouse. Make enough time to enjoy socializing with family members. Allow time to have fun with your own children or other people's children.

Avoid superficial activities, self-indulgent situations or extravagances. This isn't a time to waste money—or energy, either. Remain aware of your own feelings and the feelings of your friends and associates. Keep your distance from anyone interested in blaming you, worrying or expressing jealousy. Concentrate on spreading sunshine wherever you go.

Your 19/1 Essence

January 1 through December 31

Your Essence during this period is the same as the one described for last year. Expect the same kinds of events and opportunities to occur as you have already been experiencing. Make sure, though, to use the approach of the new Personal Year as you encounter the events that unfold at this time.

Monthly Highlights For 2014

The responsibilities that surface in January will give way to many exciting activities with both old and new friends in February. Enjoy March with those particularly close to you, including your parents or family members. Lots of romance will be expressed in June. Be very careful to avoid quarrels or misunderstandings when you socialize in August. Have a lot of fun in September and again in November. Close friends and family are present during the holiday festivities in December.

JANUARY 2014

Your 4 Personal Month

Jennifer, take care of the work that comes your way in January and the year will get off to a positive start. Complete the required details on some of your ongoing ventures. Check into the possibility of buying or selling a house, possibly around January 18th. Fulfill your current family obligations and business duties. Get everything in order and take care of any paperwork or legal matters that fall within your jurisdiction on January 22nd or so. Organize your plans in order to move ahead with some of the ideas you had at the end of 2013. Proceed to build the base you're likely to need in continuing the development of these ventures, especially the development of your powers of expression. All your work will be enhanced by using as much creative input as possible. Friends who are approached tactfully may contribute some imaginative ideas or open some significant doors. Take care of any health matters that need attention. Enjoy socializing, particularly from January 26th on.

FEBRUARY 2014

Your 5 Personal Month

Enjoy freewheeling good times throughout February. Friends, both old and new, and some exciting opportunities for adventure and travel may provide significant possibilities for expansion sometime about February 7th or 16th. You're likely to feel looser and freer now than you did at any time last year. There may be so much going on, though, that it may be hard to figure out exactly what you want to do. Avoid acting on impulse. Steer clear of frivolous activities. Exercise some caution before moving ahead. Recognize that certain situations are subject to sudden shifts and unexpected changes of direction. Wait until a promising situation settles down, sometimes a matter of several months, before making any firm commitments. Enjoy the new and unusual people you find in February but allow time for your spouse or lover as well, particularly around February 19th. When you find some activities that you think would strike your children's fancy, include them too.

MARCH 2014

Your 6 Personal Month

There may be a lot of exciting activity during the first week or so of the month, carrying over from February. Most of March will have a considerably slower pace, along with a good deal of social activity. This could prove a delightful month, with much of your time spent with family and close friends. You may find particular pleasure in your children around March 9th or 15th. You may want to arrange some outings or activities so you can share some special times together. Work to create a sense of harmony and balance in your home. Resolve any differences of opinion with parents or other close relatives on or about March 18th. A light touch at this time can be extremely helpful. An imaginative approach may also go a long way in clearing up misunderstandings. Romance can play a very beautiful part in your life, sometime around March 21st. Although family obligations are present, allow enough time for the pleasures of special, loving experiences.

APRIL 2014

Your 7 Personal Month

You'll want to spend part of your time in April socializing and enjoying others, just as you've done for the last several months. Smaller get-togethers or some time with one or two special friends currently may appeal to you. Jennifer, sometime between April 9th and 27th, you'll also want to spend some of the month by yourself, contemplating or studying with minimal interruption. In particular, you may want to look at the progress you've made since the beginning of the year in expressing yourself more fully and creatively. This can be a good time also to plan what you want to do during the rest of the year to further your development. Take time, probably around April 18th, to assess some personal problems you're working on or some new awareness you've recently recognized. Some spiritual matters also may need your attention. Make sure you advise others of your need to be alone so they don't get annoyed or resentful. If necessary, attend to health matters when you get a chance.

MAY 2014

Your 8 Personal Month

May will be an exciting month with a good chance of dynamic forward movement in some of your business ventures. A colleague may present interesting possibilities for your consideration around May 2nd. Some positive changes you hadn't expected may help matters develop more rapidly. Close friends may unlock new avenues of development, too, sometimes around May 11th or 18th, or introduce you to others who can help. An imaginative approach can be very useful. When you express yourself creatively, it may also contribute to the progress of your various projects. Concentrate on using your verbal abilities and, if possible, expand the range in which your use of words is meaningful. If you want to explore the commercial possibilities in singing, acting or writing, this would be a good time to get started or to continue your development of these special skills. Allow some time for social activity. Some business travel may also provide an enjoyable break.

JUNE 2014

Your 9 Personal Month

Some matters may be reaching a conclusion this month. You may, for example, complete the preparations for some creative venture to make ready for new or expanded work. A business affair on which you've been working may end at this time. A friendship or association may terminate as well, possibly around June 9th or 18th. In all these situations, expend the effort to keep your feelings—and other peoples' feelings—under control. Emphasize understanding, tolerance and compassion. When matters are ending, try to let go of them in a positive spirit. When a conclusion takes place, even when you previously fought against it, look for a new freedom that you wouldn't have expected. Later in June, sometime around the 24th, you may find yourself involved with some romantic interludes. Although you may gain some satisfaction, the relationship probably will fade quickly. With the month drawing to a close, you're likely to feel an invigorating sense of release and anticipation.

JULY 2014

Your 1 Personal Month

Jennifer, a feeling of verve and enthusiasm is likely throughout much of the month. The feeling that you have to wait for the right time is completely gone. It's full speed ahead now. The throttle is wide open. New opportunities may open up around July 7th or so. They'll continue or expand the progress of some of the activities you've been developing for the last six months. Longtime friends may help create promising potential sometime around July 9th. Friends you've met during the last few weeks also may be instrumental in pushing matters forward on July 13th or thereabouts. Exploit your creative talent, imaginative approach and verbal skills to maximize your possibilities. Radiate an electric sense of joy and optimism wherever you are. Take advantage of the many delightful social activities that come your way. But be careful to keep your energies focused. If you act too impulsively, you may not consider all the possibilities.

A LAST WORD

The information contained in this profile can be remarkably helpful. Read it once or twice when you first receive it. Read it again when important opportunities come your way. You may learn, as many people have, to benefit by making the most of the described possibilities by preparing beforehand.

Read the profile, too, when you feel stuck. You may benefit by figuring out how to deal with the difficulties in a better way. Jennifer, if you see a problem coming, a re-reading may show you how to prepare for that problem before it actually occurs. You may be surprised and delighted at the many times that the information in the profile contributes significantly to your life.
